

Please leave Wisconsin's no-call list as is. Please don't change anything about it. It is such a relief not to have to run to the phone all evening long. It's one of the good things about living in Wisconsin. There are so many ways to be marketed to (junk email, for example!), companies don't need to harass us on the phone.